MEMORANDUM

TO: Mr. Robert Amery
Central Intelligence Agency
222 Administration Building

FROM: Horace S. Craig

SUBJECT: Intelligence Support for Mr. C. D. Jackson

Because of the pressure put upon me in preparing things for CD for the Berlin Conference, and because I couldn't get you immediately on the telephone, I took the liberty of sending one of my staff members directly to Jamie Andrews on this one. Jamie assured me he would clear it through Reber or you or whoever is available when my staff man appears in Jamie's office.

The procedure set up by Reber, Wayne Jackson and myself seems to be working well.

Thanks for your help. Best regards.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Robert Amory
Central Intelligence Agency
222 Administration Building

FROM : Horace B. Craig

SUBJECT : Intelligence Support for Mr. C. D. Jackson

This material is to be used in preparation for the Berlin Conference.

No research is requested to meet this requirement. Existing studies, collected papers, and single reports, including classified and unclassified material will be suitable.

Material reaching OCB after 18 January will not be of use for this project. Material should be transmitted to OCB daily as drawn from the files.

Material is needed along the following lines:

1. Organization and leading personalities of the Government of the "German Democratic Republic," including biographies (derogatory as well as favorable information);
2. East German military and paramilitary organizations (including the German officers in the USSR);
3. Communist espionage and subversive activities in the German Federal Republic, including organization of riots and demonstrations;
4. Participation of Soviet citizens in the Government of the "German Democratic Republic," the SED Party, staffs of East German organizations, (e.g. some Soviet army officers are said to be managing certain East German newspapers. The son of German Communist Wilhelm Pieck once said he and his father have dual German-USSR citizenship);
5. Evidence relating to negotiation of the Molotov-Ribbentrop agreement of August 1939 and communications between the German and Soviet Governments in 1939, and following, regarding the partition and military occupation of Poland and other territories of Eastern Europe;
6. Slave labor in the "German Democratic Republic";

7. Elections and election procedures in the "German Democratic Republic" (actual, not legal description);

8. Soviet atrocities in Germany since WWII (e.g. Shooting of people crossing the zonal and sector boundaries since 1946; starting, perhaps with the Berlin orchestra conductor in 1945 and including the killing of a child in Berlin about Christmas 1953; kidnappings like that of the #2 man in the Free Jurists organization);

9. Accounts of the most dramatic escapes from the Soviet orbit since (about) June of 1953;

10. Deportations of Germans eastward through Poland in the past year. (Some reports have indicated that whole E. German families were deported in boxcars during the summer and fall of 1953);

11. Soviet army dependents moving to East Germany (OCI 0579, No. 21, 6 Jan 54);

12. Slave labor in the gold and uranium mines of the USSR and Soviet satellites;

13. Information on foreigners, including citizens of the U.S., believed to be imprisoned in the USSR, Soviet satellites and Communist China;
